

Mechanical designer for Arthur Holm

Required criteria:

- Engineer's degree with at least 5 years working experience
- Superior knowledge of 3D design, CAD & Solidworks
- Native or bilingual Spanish with a high level of English, (Other languages are a plus)
- Willingness to travel
- Job based in Saint Hipòlit de Voltregà, North Barcelona (50 minutes outside central Barcelona)

Job description:

We lead the way in innovation, design & technology!

We are an international company, that is continuously growing. We are seeking a Mechanical designer with excellent visual & spatial awareness combined with well-developed technical & creative skills to join our dynamic, creative team.

Your responsibilities will include:

- Investigating appropriate materials & production processes
- Producing sketches & sample designs
- Producing product designs using models, prototypes, specialist computer software & computer-aided design technology (CAD/Solidworks)
- Maintaining awareness of current design trends & influences
- Liaising with sales, marketing & production departments
- Presenting designs, samples and/or final work to customers for evaluation
- Creating the product part list

Industry sector: Design & Audio Visual technology

Level: Specialist

Reporting staff: None

Available vacancies: 1

If you fit the profile and you would love to work in a creative and interesting position then please send your curriculum, with a brief introduction of yourself to:

jobs@arthurholm.com